

CityLine

An Update on
Happenings in Boston

Mayor Menino Encourages Youth to Start Planning for Summer

Mayor Menino helped over 700 Boston youth jump-start their summer planning at the 4th annual "Boston R.O.C.K. IT!!! Launch Into Summer" at Dorchester's Strand Theatre.

Read More

Summer Job Registration

The Boston Youth Fund will be accepting applications for summer jobs from Boston teens ages 15-17 through March 4. Visit the website for registration details, information in eight languages and job descriptions.

Boston Youth Fund

Boston to Build Nation's First Backpack Apps

The City of Boston has announced a new partnership with Code for America, a start-up non-profit focusing on municipal innovation, to pilot a new channel to reach youth where they already spend a significant amount of time: online and cell phones. Code for America and the City will create a suite of web and mobile phone applications geared towards stimulating the academic curiosity of students while making it easier for parents and educators to connect students with opportunities.

Read More

City Takes New Approach to Potholes

"Boston is known for its old streets, but we are using the most modern technology to improve them," said Mayor Menino. The City has released a prototype smart phone application that detects potholes and introduced a new "pothole patcher" machine.

More Information

Announcements

Mayor Menino Kicks Off 10th Annual Earned Income Tax Credit Campaign

Events

With the City Calendar you can search for events,

Midway through the 2011 tax season the campaign is going strong with 25 tax assistance sites open across the city where residents can go to receive help filling out tax forms to maximize the amount of their returns.

Read More

Boston Ballet Performances at the Strand Theatre

The Boston Ballet in partnership with Mayor Menino and Boston Public Schools will present two free performances at The Strand Theatre on Friday, March 11, 2011. The 11am performance is reserved for Boston Public School students and the 7pm performance is free and open to the general public.

More Information

Annual Resident Listing

Responding to the annual resident listing ensures the integrity of the voting list, as well as providing important data in planning for the delivery of city services. You can submit your form on-line or download a form here.

Complete Your Annual Resident Listing

Scholarship Applications Available

Mayor Menino established the City of Boston Scholarship Fund to provide assistance to Boston residents who plan to pursue post-secondary education.

Download Application

Parking Meter Changes

The Transportation Department has announced scheduled updates including a rate adjustment, an expansion of the credit card payment option to include single space parking meters, and the implementation of a smart card program.

More Information

download to your calendar, sign up for event reminders and more.

Boston Restaurant Week

March 6-11 | City Wide

14th Annual International Women's Day Breakfast

March 8 | 7:30a | Simmons College

Riffs & Raps: Jazzin the Generations

March 15 | 6:30p | Faneuil Branch Library

Boston Flower & Garden Show

March 16-20 | 9:00a | Seaport World Trade Center

St. Patrick's Day Parade

March 17 | South Boston

City Year Diversity Day

March 26 | 9:00a

View the Full Calendar:

cityofboston.gov/calendar »